The group expects it to be a casual afternoon welcoming the start of fall. Arts on the Lake is directly on Lake Carmel. Refreshments will be available, and BYOB is welcome.

The writers’ group is proud to feature writer Elisabeth Friechauf, a recent recipient of a “Poets and Writers” grant, has written and published several books including ,“They Clasp My Hand: A Family Memoir as Told in Poems” and “The Lost Notebook”. This event is also made possible by the AoTL, a recipient of a New York’s Council on the Arts.

The Lake Writers Group, established in 2012, under the auspices of Lake Carmel’s Arts on the Lake. The 10-member group meets once a month. With Thomas Kersting, a retired English teacher, leading the way, the writer’s bring poetry, fiction and creative non-fiction to hone their pieces in a warm and constructive way.
